Summary

Final-year CSE student specializing in AI, Data Science, and Data Analytics, with hands-on experience in building data-driven and automation-based solutions. Skilled in Python, ML, and analytical tools to solve real-world problems and deliver actionable insights.

Projects

Agrichain – ai cloud ecosystem

Tools: Python, Data Analysis

- Contributed to the design of an AI-based cloud ecosystem for agricultural data management
- analyze agricultural data to improve transparency and decision-making
- Worked on system architecture, data flow, and analytical components
- Applied data analytics concepts to solve real-world agricultural challenges

Social media data automation & analysis (ai agent project)

Tools: Python, n8n, AI models, data processing

- Built an AI agent to generate and schedule social media posts based on user input
- Automated content creation workflows using AI and data-driven prompts
- Analyzed engagement patterns to improve post effectiveness.
- Demonstrated applied knowledge of automation, analytics, and AI integration
